INTERNAL REGULATIONS OF AEGEE-GRONINGEN

Version of the Election GMA, 22 June 2020.

Section 1. Membership

1:1 Start of Membership and duration

1. Application takes place by means of a written application form to the Secretary and timely receipt of the contribution to the Treasurer.
2. A member is bound to pay the contribution of AEGEE-Groningen by putting a signature on the application form.
3. This commitment can be cancelled within four weeks after the start of the membership by written notice to the Secretary.
4. The membership starts when a fully completed and signed application form has been received by the Secretary. Membership can start at any time of the year. Membership is entered into a period of twelve months. If the member does not cancel the membership within the notice period, the membership automatically extends for a period of twelve months.

1:2 End of Membership

1. Termination of the membership is affected by a written cancellation to the Secretary.
2. The notice period is at least four weeks before the end of a membership year.
3. Immediate termination of the membership by cancellation is possible, if it cannot reasonably be required to continue the membership.
4. If termination has not taken place in time, the membership will continue until the end of the next year of membership.
5. Termination entails the withdrawal of an authorization for the contribution.
6. Withdrawal of an issued authorization does not imply termination of the membership.

1:3 Requirements for registration and the welcome letter

1. The application form must contain a provision in which the prospective member accepts the Statutes and the IR.
2. For a valid authorization form, the application form must be drawn up in a way that it meets the requirements, as set out in the authorization contract by AEGEE-Groningen and the bank.
3. After the start of the membership, the members receive a welcome letter. This letter contains at least article 1:2 paragraph 1, paragraph 2, paragraph 3 and paragraph 4, article 2:1, article 2:2 paragraph 1 and paragraph 3, article 2:3 and article 2:4 paragraph 1.

Section 2. Contribution

2:1 Payment of the contribution

1. Every member pays the annual contribution. The contribution year starts at the same time as the membership year.
2. Payment of the contribution will be made by means of an authorization.

2:2 Amount of the contribution

1. The contribution is fourty euros a year.
2. The contribution for members who joined before October 1 2009 is thirty euros a year.
3. Changes regarding the amount of the contribution must be reported in the weekly mail and on the website: www.aegee-groningen.nl

2:3 Debt collection agency

For the collection of all amounts mentioned, the Board may engage a debt collection agency. The collection costs are for the account of the member concerned.

2:4 Collection date

1. The collection dates are in October, February and June. After the start of the membership, the contributions are collected on or shortly after the next collection date.
2. The next collection date after the start of the membership, as referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, is considered to be the moment of payment for the membership administration.

2:5 Payment activities

1. If members of AEGEE-Groningen have registered for an activity, the costs of the activity will be amortized under the authorization of the member upon signing the membership form. The costs of the activity are amortized after the activity has ended. This is done by the Treasurer of AEGEE-Groningen.
2. If there is no membership, the costs must be paid before the start of the activity. The board sets a payment deadline.

Section 3. General Members Meeting (GMA)

3:1 Invitations

Written invitations for the GMA will be sent to all members no later than fourteen days before the GMA.

3:2 Received documents

Members can submit documents at any time, unless there are specific provisions for these documents, including the documents in the IR and the Statutes.

3:3 Insight

All documents that will be discussed at the GMA are no later than fourteen days before the GMA for your perusal:

- During opening hours of the AEGEE-Groningen office, and

- d. Voting on the policy, budget and annual plan.

Title 1 Course of events of GMA

3:6 Agenda

The chairperson of the GMA sets the agenda at the beginning of the GMA. Any additions or corrections to the provisional agenda will then be submitted.

3:7 Reports

1. Without prejudice to the provision in the second sentence of article 14 paragraph 1 of the Statutes of AEGEE-Groningen, the Treasurer will, also during the Semi-Annual GMA, report on the financial policy pursued in the first half of the association year. This report consists at least of a state of assets and expenditure and a revised budget, if any. The report is submitted to the GMA for approval.
2. The board presents its semi-annual report at the Semi-Annual GMA. The report is submitted to the GMA for approval.
3. Without prejudice to the provisions of the second sentence of article 14 paragraph 1 of the Statutes of AEGEE-Groningen, the half-yearly and annual reports are a substantive evaluation of the policy plan.

3:8 Admittance

Members who are more than four weeks in arrears with payments do not have access to the GMA.

Title 2 Voting procedure during a GMA

3:9 Procedure

1. A voting procedure takes place either by acclamation, by hand or by ballot.
2. Votes are cast by acclamation in cases where a decision is made regarding the half-yearly report as well the semi-annual financial report.
3. Votes must be cast by acclamation, if what is voted on is not regulated in the Internal Regulations.

3:10 Ballot paper

1. Votes will be cast by ballot in the event of a decision on the final report, the final financial report, a proposal to amend the Internal Regulations, a proposal to amend the Statutes, as well as voting on persons, such as delegates.
2. A ballot paper, without prejudice to a ballot paper concerning delegates, shall provide the option to vote for or against or to vote blank, for every person entitled to vote. Provided that the votes against are not deducted from the votes in favor, and that the blank vote is only relevant for determining the quorum.

3:11 Authorization

Authorization to have someone else vote in his name is done in writing by sending the proxy to the Secretary no later than the start of the GMA. The full name of the proxy giver, the full name of the authorized representative, the signature of the proxy giver, the date of the signature and the date on which the GMA takes place must be stated.

3:12 Majority

1. In the case of voting on delegates, the mutual majority of all candidate delegates shall prevail.

2. In all other cases where voting is required in accordance with paragraph 1, a simple majority is sufficient to decide something, this means half of all votes plus one. If a vote takes place between different options, a mutual majority will prevail.

Title 3 Delegates

3:13 Composition of Agora

1. The delegation of AEGEE-Groningen for an Agora of AEGEE-Europe consists of a number of members of AEGEE-Groningen to be determined on the basis of the Corpus Iuridicum AEGEEense of AEGEE-Europe.
2. The delegates of the delegation referred to in paragraph 1 of this article will be elected by a GMA. Candidate delegates report to the board in writing no later than fourteen days before the relevant general meeting.
3. Until at least twenty-four hours before the start of the GMA in question, members can register as a counter-candidate by means of a written notification to the board.
4. A ballot paper regarding a decision concerning delegates, gives each person entitled to vote the opportunity to select no more candidates than the number of delegates allocated by the Corpus Iuridicum AEGEEense from a list of all candidate delegates, in order to vote for the aforementioned candidate or candidates.
5. If one or more elected delegates cannot attend the Agora, the board has the right to appoint other members as delegate. The board will announce its decision on the website and in the next weekly mail.

3:14 Report

1. All delegates are expected to fully commit themselves to both the preparation of, and the relevant meeting where they represent AEGEE-Groningen.
2. The delegates shall submit a substantive report regarding the meeting to the Gronoloog.

3:15 Compensations

1. The board may grant compensation to the delegates of AEGEE-Groningen.
2. Compensation consists of either a contribution to the travel costs or a contribution to the costs for the delegate's participation.
3. If the board opts for partial or full compensation of travel expenses, it will be compensated once per event. The amount of the fee is based on the reasonably available cheapest mode of transport and is divided among the delegates.
4. The board will determine the amount of the compensation referred to in paragraph 1 for all Agoras that will take place within their term of office.
5. If the financial situation of the association so requires, the board can, during the Half-yearly GMA, submit a proposal to alter the amount it has established in accordance with paragraph 6.
6. The Agora consists of mandatory parts, namely the 'plenaries' and the 'prytania'. To receive compensation as referred to in paragraph 1, delegates must attend at least eighty percent of the plenaries. In addition, delegates must attend at least as many prytania per time slot according to the number of delegates, with a maximum of the number of prytania.
7. Delegates must request compensation within one month of the Agora.

1. Application takes place by means of a written application form to the Secretary and timely receipt of the contribution to the Treasurer.
2. A member is bound to pay the contribution of AEGEE-Groningen by putting a signature on the application form.
3. This commitment can be cancelled within two weeks after the start of the membership by written notice to the Secretary.
4. The membership starts when a fully completed and signed application form has been received by the Secretary. Membership can start at any time of the year. Membership is entered into for a period of twelve months. If the member does not cancel the membership within the notice period, the membership is automatically extended for a period of twelve months.

12:4 Application form and welcome letter

1. The application form must contain a provision, in which the member accepts the Statutes and the IR of AEGEE-Groningen.
2. For a valid authorization form, the application form must contain an authorization. The application form must be drawn up in a way that it meets the requirements, as set out in the authorization contract by AEGEE-Groningen and the bank.
3. After the start of the membership, the members receive a welcome letter. The welcome letter contains at least the full text of the articles included in this section.

12:5 Membership contribution

1. The membership contribution is at least thirty euros per year. For the first three years, a reduced rate of fifty percent of the membership contribution applies. This reduced rate applies to members who joined the alumni body after January 26, 2021.
2. Members of the alumni body are informed of the increased membership contribution at least eight weeks before the fourth collection date by email.
3. The membership contribution is at least twenty euros per year for members who joined before 24 February 2009.
4. The board of AEGEE-Groningen is exempt from paying the membership contribution.
5. Fifteen euros of each membership contribution will go towards the annual activity. The remaining part of the membership contribution is reserved for the benefit of the alumni body. If the aforementioned activities turn out to be cheaper than the budget for this, the remaining money is reserved for the benefit of the association.
6. If an alumnus does not participate in the annual activity the membership contribution is fully reserved for the investment for the benefit of the association.
7. The board presents at least three options to the alumni in the invitation for the annual activity and explains how the reservation can be invested for the purpose of the alumni gift. Members of the alumni body decide which option will be executed at the annual activity. If no members are present, the board of the alumni body decides.
8. Payment of the membership contribution is made annually by an authorization.
9. The collection date is in February. The collection takes place within two weeks after the collection date.

12:6 Ending of membership

1. Termination of the membership is affected by a written cancellation to the Secretary.

2. The notice period is at least two weeks before the end of a membership year.
3. Immediate termination of the membership by cancellation is possible, if it cannot reasonably be required to continue the membership.
4. If termination has not taken place in time, the membership will continue until the end of the next year of membership.
5. Termination entails the withdrawal of an authorization for the contribution.
6. Withdrawal of an issued authorization does not imply termination of the membership.

Section 13. Strategic plan

13:1 Strategic plan

1. The Strategic Plan is valid for three years. In the last year of an ongoing Strategic Plan, the board is obliged to draw up a new Strategic Plan. At least one think tank and two public writing sessions are held for this purpose. The Strategic Plan is submitted to the GMA for approval. After approval, the Strategic Plan comes into effect.
2. The Strategic Plan is a directive for every policy plan in the years that concern the Strategic Plan. Each board attaches a written explanation to the policy plan, showing the influence of the Strategic Plan on the policy plan.
3. In the end-of-the-year report, the board will explain the progress made in that year regarding the goals set in the Strategic Plan.
